	28/01/2005 Suresh Kumar Verma, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Akhil Agrawal, P.L. for the State. Heard on I.A. No. 220/2005 for urgent hearing. It is allowed. The instant petition has been filed by the petitioner on the ground that he had challenged the transfer order of Annexure P-1 by filing a Writ Petition No. 3355/2004 which was disposed of by this Court vide order dated 01/11/2004 with a direction to the respondents to decide the representation submitted by the petitioner within six weeks. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he submitted the representation vide Annexure P-4 but the same has not been decided by the respondents despite categorical direction by this Court. The document of Annexure P-5 establishes that the representation of the petitioner is under consideration. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the period of six weeks by which the representation was to be decided is already over. Even then they have not decided the representation and it is as such a violation of the Court's order. However, it is prayed that respondents should be further directed to decide the representation of the petitioner which is pending. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner. The order of Annexure P-2 passed by this Court is very specific and clear and if the petitioner is aggrieved by non compliance of the above order, he is at liberty to move suitable
